The Caroline Chapel Christmas.

Special to the News.

The Caroline Chapel Christmas was a great success and without exception was carried out finely. Prayer was offered by Superintendent J. D. Billingsley; music was furnished by the Patty Band, composed of Jos. Patty, Dr. K. Shelton, Will Shelton, Will Lewis, Will Bennett, Herschel Kelley, Clyde Kelley, Mrs. Bertie Shelton, Miss Estelle Lewis. The program was carefully carried out. As the music was rendered the beautiful Christmas tree revolved around showing the elegant presents which made the children's hearts glad and the young ladies look on with pleasure thinking of the presents they would soon receive. Rev. J. F. Hash of Whitwell, was introduced then by the superintendent in his lively manner, which pleased all and was much appreciated. The house was packed from end to end, and splendid order prevailed. Old Santa Claus and wife appeared before the distribution of presents. Some of the band boys fell deeply in love with Mrs. Claus, and her charming ways and lovely attire charmed them, making old Santa jealous.
